FIRST READING

Job 38.1-11

PSALM 107.1-3,23-32

Confitemini Domino

O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is gracious • and his mercy endureth for ever.

Let them give thanks whom the Lord hath redeemed • and delivered from the hand of the enemy;

And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west • from the north, and from the south.

They that go down to the sea in ships • and occupy their business in great waters;

These men see the works of the Lord • and his wonders in the deep.

For at his word the stormy wind ariseth • which lifteth up the waves thereof.

They are carried up to the heaven, and down again to the deep • their soul melteth away because of the trouble.

They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunk en man • and are at their wit's end.

So when they cry unto the Lord in their trouble • he delivereth them out of their distress.

For he maketh the storm to cease • so that the waves thereof are still.

Then are they glad, because they are at rest • and so he bringeth them unto the haven where they would be.

O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness • and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men!

That they would exalt him also in the congregation of the people • and praise him in the seat of the elders!
