FIRST READING

Amos 7.7–15

PSALM 85.8–13

Benedixisti, Domine

I will hearken what the Lord God will say concern^{ing} me • for he shall speak peace unto his people, and to his saints, that they turn not again.

For his salvation is nigh them that fear him • that glory may dwell in our land.

Mercy and truth are met together • righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

Truth shall flourish out of the earth • and righteousness hath looked down from heav'n.

Yea, the Lord shall shew loving-kindness • and our land shall give her increase.

Righteousness shall go before him • and he shall direct his going in^{the} way.

Last Sunday, it was our pleasure to welcome Revd Tim Tunley, Chaplain for Mission to Seafarers Scotland, to the 10 am Sung Mass for Sea Sunday. The Mission to Seafarers works in over 200 ports in 50 countries caring for seafarers of all ranks, nationalities and beliefs. Through the global network of chaplains, staff and volunteers they offer practical, emotional and spiritual support to seafarers through ship visits, drop-in seafarers' centres and a range of welfare and emergency support services. A retiring collection is being taken today to support this vital work. Your generosity would be greatly appreciated.

Jill's Produce Trolley will be available next week with preserves and baked goods.

We are in need of occasional volunteers to be at the church during daily open hours (3–5 pm). For more information, or to sign up, please visit <http://bit.ly/allsaintsopendoors>; alternatively, speak to either the Rector or to Sarah.

Reserving seats: Please email allsaints-seats@mail.com by Friday evening with your name and number of seats requested for the following Sunday's 10 am mass. If access to the internet is an issue, one of the church wardens can reserve a seat for you.
