COLLECT

Grant, we beseech thee, merciful Lord, to thy faithful people pardon and peace, that they may be cleansed from all their sins and serve thee with a quiet mind; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

FIRST READING

Jeremiah 31.7–9

PSALM 126

Qui habitat

When the Lord turned again the captivity of Sion • then were we like unto them that dream.

Then was our mouth filled with laughter • and our tongue with joy.

Then said they among the heathen • The Lord hath done great things for them.

Yea, the Lord hath done great things for us already • whereof we rejoice.

Turn our captivity, O Lord • as the rivers in the south.

They that sow in tears • shall reap in joy.

He that now goeth on his way weeping, and beareth forth good seed • shall doubtless come again with joy, and bring his sheaves with him.

EPISTLE

Hebrews 7.23–38

The annual social All Saints' Lunch returns next Sunday, 31st October following the 10 am Sung Mass. This will be a bring and share lunch in the Main Hall. Please see Jill or Frances with a note of what you can bring. Covid measures will be in place to ensure safety and peace of mind.

There will be a 6 pm Sung Mass on Monday 1st November to celebrate All Saints' Day, and a Sung Requiem at 6 pm on Tuesday 2nd November to observe All Soul's Day. A list has been placed on the north aisle window ledge for names of those you wish to be remembered at the Masses on All Soul's Day.

Jill's Produce Trolley will be available today after the 10 am Sung Mass.
