THE FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

A very warm welcome to everyone new to and visiting All Saints' today! Please join us in the hall across the porch after the service for refreshments.

- ❖ At COMMUNION, as well as at the altar rail, the Sacrament can be administered in the nave for those who prefer to receive there. The chalice is shared with those communicants who wish to receive it (the rim is cleansed with food-grade alcohol between each person). It is not our custom to intinct (dip) the wafer in the chalice.
- ❖ Children are very welcome here. Should parents find it helpful, the Green Room is available as a resource.
- ❖ Assisted access: If you would like assistance when ascending the Altar steps, please let the Sidesperson on duty know.
- ❖ Gift Aid envelopes are provided for the use of UK taxpayers.
- ❖ Large print liturgy booklets and hymn books are available, as well as a Braille edition of the liturgy.
- ❖ Induction loop hearing aid users can set their devices to use this in the nave of church.

Most gracious God, incline thy merciful ears to our prayers, and enlighten our hearts by the grace of thy Holy Spirit; that we may worthily approach thy holy Mysteries, and love thee with an everlasting love.

FIRST READING

CANTICLE

Lamentations 3.22-33

The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases • his mercies never come to an end;

They are new ev'ry morning • great is thy faithfulness.

'The Lord is my portion,' says my soul • 'therefore I will hope in him.'

The Lord is good to those who wait for him • to the soul that seeks him.

It is good that one should wait quietly • for the salvation of the Lord.

It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth • let him sit alone in silence when he has laid it on him.

Let him put his mouth in the dust - there may yet be hope • let him give his cheek to the smiter, and be filled with insults.

For the Lord will not cast off for ever • but though he cause grief, he will have compassion according to the abundance of his steadfast love.

For he does not willingly afflict • or grieve the sons of man.

❖ NOTICES ❖

A gentle reminder that many use the time before services for quiet prayer and spiritual preparation. The church is, of course, a place where we come meet dear friends in Christ, as well as the Lord, so please do not feel discouraged from greeting them quietly, while remaining mindful of the needs of others.

The Sung Mass is currently supported by the chamber organ kindly loaned us by our friends in the Music Department of the University. The church organ is being renovated during the summer months. Thank you for singing heartily.

The funeral Requiem for John Sharp will commence at 10.45 am tomorrow, Monday 1 July, with the Committal at Brewsterwells Crematorium at 1 pm. John's coffin will be received into church earlier tomorrow at 9.30 am, with a short service. Many thanks to all those assisting with hospitality after the Requiem.

Petertide (the Feast of St Peter) was yesterday but please remember in your prayers those bring ordained at this, a traditional time for ordinations to take place. Among those marking anniversaries of ministry, Fr Ian Michael celebrates his 44th anniversary this year.

Please note that the Tuesday evening Mass returns this week. Many thanks to Fr Ashley Cummins (Tig's brother) who joins the ministry team to celebrate on Tuesdays.

The annual Sung Requiem for the Founders & Benefactors of All Saints' will take place on Saturday 6 July at 11.30 am. This is followed by a reception in the Rectory.

Solemn Evensong & Benediction is next scheduled for Sunday 7 July at 6 pm.

The Jesus Prayer group will meet in the chapel on Wednesday 17 July at 4 pm.

Val and Rick Gardner welcomed a new grandson to their family in the early hours of 20 June. Congratulations, prayers and good wishes to Sally-Marie and Alex as they unpack in their new home - and still ponder a name for their son.

Please remember in your prayers all those preparing for baptism or confirmation: there are currently three exploring confirmation and we hope to arrange for a visiting bishop in September (probably on Sunday 22). If you feel a sense of calling to explore the possibility of confirmation please speak to the Rector.
